CAMBRIDGE, Oct. M .- Harvard today was held to a 7 to 0 score in an eldfashioned game by Michigan. Twentyfive thousand spectators, who anticipated spectacular clash and sensationsal de clopments, saw only line plunging and few end runs.

Turvard carried off three out of four orward passes, one of which brought to within striking distance of Michican's goal line in the second period. 'rom Michigan's eighteen-yard-line six Harvard plunges brought the only score of the game. Hardwick, on a five-yard dash, practically walked over the goal He then kicked goal. Michigan was twice on Harvard's five-yard line, and mee with a first down. The Harvard ine stiffened and each time gained the ball on downs. The Harvard team was not forced to uncover any of its cherlabed plays for the benefit of Yale or Princeton scouts.

Michigan Wins Toss. First period Michigan won the toss and Harvard kicked off against a northeast wind. Splawn came back twenty yards and three plunges through the Harvard center gave Michigan first downs. Splawa and Mault both went to Harvard's forty-eight-yard line in two plays, and Splawn made another first down. Then Harvard forced a kick. The on its thirty-yard line. It will be a nifty little crowd of American citizens that will congregate in this well-known metropolitan city for the minor league convention November 19, 11 and 12. Hig men, little men and men never heard of in this part of the country will be here to do business. Magnates will be here in efforts to pave the way for a prosperous season in 1915, managera will be here to trade players with other managers, players will be here to make demands on the magnates. All manner of base ball men will be here and they are liable to do most anything.

For instance Charles Holiday Ebbets will come along with his son, who is alleged to be owner of the Newark club. It is also probable that while here, Charles will declare a few holldays for Mayor Dahlman in view of the fact that he is recognized as the best little holiday declarer in the world. Also Charles may say something about the Kraft case and start a little fight or two.

Some Other Notables Coming.

Next is Mr. William P. Baker of the Philadelphia National league club, Mr. Baker's club was almost ruined by the Federal league a year ago and this year the Feds have declared they will annihiliate it. This action Mr. Baker objects to and he will be here to work together with the minors in framing some stunt which will either put the Federal league on the blink, or bring about reconciliation.
